

Staff Recognition

Staff Member of the Month

Each month an SPU staff member is designated the Staff Member of the Month. Nominated by their peers and selected by Staff Council, these staff members exemplify service to the University, showing leadership in their staff role and elsewhere.

June 2019 Staff Member of the Month

Chloe Hays, program coordinator for Marriage and Family Therapy.

Read about Chloe and see all the Staff Members of the Month

Staff Members of the Year

Each year, two Seattle Pacific University staff members are selected to receive recognition for their outstanding contributions to the SPU community, and are named the Oral V. Henry Non-Exempt Staff Member of the Year and the Exempt Staff Member of the Year. Awards are announced and presented at the Celebration of Service event each spring.

2019 Staff Members of the Year

Donna McLynne, assistant director of Student Financial Services programs was named Exempt Staff Member of the Year (pictured left)

Katie Bennett, graduate programs administrative assistant in the School of Health Sciences, was named the Oral V. Henry Non-Exempt Staff Member of the Year (pictured right)

Read about Donna and Katie.

Read more about the awards and past winners.

Nominations

Let us know who us who you nominate for Staff Member of the Month !