

Accessible Instruction

Table of Contents

- Overview
- Video
- Attribution

Overview

Course design, both online and in-person, should be accessible to fit the needs of all students. This video, courtesy of the UW DO-IT Center, illustrates the importance of incorporating universal design into classroom and course sites.

Video

Attribution

"Quality Education is Accessible" by University of Washington DO-IT is licensed under CC BY 3.0

- Why Universal Design?
- Accessibility
- Captioning Panopto Videos
- Creating Panopto Videos
- Document Accessibility
- Getting Started
- Resources
- Principles of Universal Design
- Universal Design and Technology
- Top Course Accessibility Tips
- Accessible Instruction
- Accessibility in Canvas
- Online Lectures and Captioning
- System Accessibility Information
- Course Accessibility Checklist